British artist Billy Childish is back in New York for his fourth exhibition with Lehmann Maupin, which even includes a handy hashtag for selfies with the artist's latest oil paintings: #billychildish. (The Stuckist is moving into the Internet Age, it seems.) The exhibition, "flowers, nudes and birch trees: New Paintings 2015," features the mental wanderings of the mustachioed polymath artist, who is also a musician and "confessional poet" bent on painting scenes that evoke childhood and wonder. Billy Childish, "flowers, nudes and birch trees: New Paintings 2015," will be on view at Lehmann Maupin from September 10-October 31, 2015.
