25 Artists to Watch in 2013

By Elisa Carmichael

Sam Moyer, Slack Tide, Installation View, 2012, Rachel Uffner Gallery, New York

Sam Moyer

Based in: Brooklyn

Sam Moyer's solo project at Rachel Uffner Gallery's booth for NADA Miami 2012 was one of the strongest presentations at the fair. Her solo exhibitions earlier in the year, at Société in Berlin and Rachel Uffner in New York, showcased in even grander form the arresting nature of her monochromatic ink on canvas works. Group shows for Moyer in 2012 included Dark Garnaal at Galerie Rodolphe Janssen in Brussels, Inter ruption at Michael Kohn Gallery in Los Angeles, Home Again, Again at the journal gallery in Brooklyn, The Space in Between at Steven Zevitas Gallery in Boston, Portrait of a Generation at The Hole in New York, Material Occupation at University of Albany Art Museum and Textility at the Visual Arts Center of New Jersey in Summit. 2013 will see a two person exhibition with Elaine Cameron-Weir at Galerie Rodolphe Janssen
