4. COFFEE-TABLE BOOK THE LAST WORD ON POP ART

The Pop Object, a new volume from Rizzoli that celebrates an exhibition of the same name at New York's Acquavella Galleries (April 10–May 24), groups pieces by the likes of Warhol and Dine according to their subject matter—food, flowers, housewares—revealing Pop Art's knack for finding brilliance in banal things. $75; out April 9.
